For the first time this season a new racing formula will be exciting crowds at circuits all over the country.

The formula is called F100.

Se guinterstates.

The new category is named after the Firestone F100. This tyre is a family car radial but due to its amazing performance has seized the imagination of racing drivers. In the last few years it has dominated Formula Ford racing.

Tyres on racing cars take more punishment in an hour than ordinary motoring hands out in a month. So when you've got Firestone F100s on your car you've got a lot of mileage to put in before they wear out. And you've got a lot of grip, in the wet or dry, to keep you safe. And that's why they call F100 the 'family tyre.' The family tyre that goes racing.

Swedish flyer Reine Wisell, who had such a fine story of success in Formula 3, has taken to Formula 5000 like a duck to water. In the Sid Taylor McLaren M10B which gave Peter Gethin the Guards Championship, Reine has notched three wins and a second in his first five outings. Can he make it four victories in succession this afternoon?

Can Reine Wisell make it four in a row? The F5000 record should take a beating

The prospect of taking home £500 for winning both of the 15-lap races, plus a bitterly close battle for valuable championship points, are but two of the tempting ingredients of what promises to be a really exciting Formula 5000 battle on the Grand Prix circuit here this afternoon.

The Guards Championship Race is the final round of the Guards European Formula 5000 Championship, and the points situation ensures that big money will be at stake today for all of the high placings in the championship table (except that Peter Gethin cannot be caught for first place).

All the stars of this thrilling formula, for these immensely powerful 5-litre V8-engined single-seaters, have entered for this last clash of the 1970 season, in a two-part event which carries a prize fund of £2,500.

Reine Wisell, the Swedish ace who took over the cockpit of the worksbacked McLaren Chevrolet M10B with which Peter Gethin clinched the Guards Championship before moving up into the McLaren GP and Can-Am teams, will be making his first Formula 5000 appearance before a Brands Hatch crowd. Reine was one of three drivers who dominated the international F3 scene last season — the others were Tim Schenken and Ronnie Peterson, who have been fortunate to move into F1 — and at 28 he is probably the most experienced of this formidable trio.

The luck of the draw has meant that so far Reine has had only one Formula 1 drive (in a McLaren at Silverstone in April, when he finished fifth) but he was very anxious to graduate to more powerful machinery, and when Peter Gethin got his promotion, Reine was picked by the shrewd Sid Taylor to drive the M10B which had brought Peter eight victories and three second places in the Guards Championship.

Reine's first F5000 appearance was at Silverstone in mid-August, when he soon demonstrated how much he felt at home by finishing second to Frank Gardner. Next time out was at Oulton Park on August 22, when he was not so fortunate, for he spun and damaged the back of the McLaren in the first heat. But at Snetterton on August 31, and again at Hockenheim a fortnight later, he took the chequered flag to confirm that he is very much a driver to contend with in this formula. Then last Saturday he had a cracking battle at Oulton Park with Frank Gardner, during which they both equalled the Formula 1 lap record, and Wisell won on aggregate by 2.4 seconds.

How will he go this afternoon? He knows Brands Hatch pretty well from his F3 days, but he will have to work hard to keep ahead of his rivals, many of whom know this circuit extremely well. He faces tough opposition from other M10B drivers - New Zealanders Howden Ganley and Graham McRae, and Mike Walker — and from the Lola T190s driven by Australian Frank Gardner and ex-world champion motorcyclist Mike Hailwood. And if Tony Lanfranchi gets a run in Ulf Norinder's Lola T190 there could be even more opposition since Tony really knows this circuit like the back of his hand.

It should be an extremely fast race, and there is every prospect that the F5000 lap record will be toppled. The current record for the GP circuit stands to Peter Gethin, who in March this year circulated in 1 minute 29.6 seconds, 106.47 miles an hour. Improvements to the F5000 cars during the season suggest that this figure will be beaten by several drivers this afternoon. Even the outright record, set by Jack Brabham with his Brabham BT33 in the Race of Champions at 1 min. 25.8 secs., 111.19 mph, might be in jeopardy.

(Autocar photograph)

New Zealander Howden Ganley has been impressively consistent with his McLaren could just be overtaken by Frank Gardner this afternoon.

Formula 5000 provides the highlight of this race-packed afternoon, but there is much more besides. As a really good curtain-raiser we have a 10-lapper for the Modified Sports Cars and Grand Touring Cars. This is a qualifying round of the STP Modified Sports Car and SKF Grand Touring Car Championships, and with both championships reaching a vital stage there is bound to be plenty of needle all round.

There is also bound to be tremendous interest in the Hepolite-Glacier Championship Race. This is the 17th round of this saloon car championship which has proved a great success, and with only two more rounds to follow the situation is getting pretty tense.

What can we look for in the three classes? In the up-to-1,000 cc class the favourite must be Roger Williamson with his Holbay-tuned Ford Anglia, and in the 1,001 - 1,300 class Rob Mason, from Bexley, who knows Brands Hatch very well, should be capable of winning with his Don Mooreprepared Mini-Cooper 'S.' In the top capacity class things look much more open, for Martin Birrane should be present with his 7 litre Ford Mustang to fight off a really tough challenge from a whole gaggle of Ford Escorts. David Brodie is down to drive that well-known black Escort powered by a 2.1 litre engine, while former British Saloon Car Champion John Fitzpatrick is due to turn out in the Team Broadspeed's new Ford Escort RS1600. Throw in such rivals as Colin Hawker, who has a 3-litre V6 under the bonnet of his Escort; Eric Chappell, John Bloomfield, Andy O'Keeffe and George Whitehead in their Escorts, and you have the makings of a great struggle.

As though this isn't enough, there is also a 10-lap race for those everpopular Formula Fords, with some very good drivers in the entry list. It looks like being a day's racing to remember.

M10B, and currently stands second in the Guards F5000 Championship, though he

GUARDS European Formula 5000 Championship

The second season of the powerful and thrilling Formula 5000 offers prize money and bonuses worth well in excess of £100,000 to drivers and entrants.

The Formula 5000 drivers' and entrants' championship for 1970, promoted by Motor Circuit Developments in association with the British Racing & Sports Car Club and again sponsored by Carreras, the makers of Guards cigarettes, consists of 20 qualifying rounds in eight different countries. Of these, 12 are run over a distance exceeding 100 miles with a purse of £5000 for each event and the remaining eight over a distance of about 60 miles with a £2500 prize fund. Points for the Guards European Formula 5000 Championship are allocated on the basis of 9 - 6 - 4 - 3 - 2 - 1 to the drivers finishing in the first six places. A competitor's performance in 10 of the long races and four of the shorter events is taken into account in deciding the championship placings.

All the races are run on a two-part basis with the results calculated on a competitor's aggregate times. The prize money in each event is equally divided between the two parts but the Guards Championship points are only allocated on the overall aggregate results.

The prize fund for the shorter races is on the same scale as for last year's Formula 5000 races, and is in operation today. It is allocated on the following scale in each heat :

lst £250	2nd — £175
5th £75	$6th - £62\frac{1}{2}$
9th £40	$10th - £37\frac{1}{2}$
13th £30	$14th - £2.7\frac{1}{2}$
17th £25	18th - £25

Based on a minimum of 20 qualifying rounds the Drivers' Championship winner receives £1000, with £500 for the runner-up. The £2500 fund extends down to £25 for eighth place. There is also an Entrants' Championship with identical rewards. These funds are to be reduced by 5% per round if fewer than 20 rounds are held. The total purse for the 20 rounds is £80,000 and this is brought up to a figure of £85,000 with the championship awards. Since Formula 5000 has trade support for 1970, with generous bonuses (one company is offering more than £13,000) the whole series is thus worth well over £100,000.
